Exhibiting at Shasta Growers Association Saturday Redding Certified Farmers' Market is not permitted until application is approved by the SGA Board of Directors. You will be notified by phone, email, or mail of acceptance. If accepted you shall be required to:

A. Make no sales of products, raffle tickets or other fundraising items unless these items are approved by the SGA Board of Directors. If you are approved to sell products for fundraising, you will be expected to pay the stall fees as outlined in the Rules & Regulations. You will be required to pay a discounted $25 annual membership fee.

B. Provide your own canopy, tables, chairs, and signage to identify your organization.

C. Canopy must be secured on all four sides with weights heavy enough to withstand winds sometimes experienced at the market.

D. Make no solicitations outside of your assigned space. Do not approach customers while in communal walkways or other market booths.

E. Always notify the market manager about my attendance as outlined below: All vendors are required to leave a voicemail for the market manager at (530) 226-7100: by 6 pm two days prior to desired date of attendance at market

*Failure to do so may result in a fine. Please identify yourself and organization, speak clearly, and provide a call back number. This does not guarantee you a space. If there is no space available for you, the market manager will contact you by phone prior to market day.

F. You must arrive at the market location thirty minutes before the market opens and be set up in your assigned space by market opening.

NO EARLY DEPARTURES ARE ALLOWED.

Having read and understood the above application, I request permission to sell at the SGA Markets. I have read and understand the SGA Rules and Regulations (available at www.reddingfarmersmarkets.com) and agree to abide by them and to cooperate fully with the Board of Directors and Market Manager.

- I fully understand that failure to do so will result in my dismissal from the market.
- The SGA has my permission to use images of myself and/or my booth for print or social media advertising purposes.
- I also understand that the application approval process can take up to six weeks from the time my application has been received.
